- Self-exclusion provides people who are struggling with their gambling habits an opportunity to step away from gambling and refocus their lives and finances. It can provide you with access to additional community support to address your gambling and may also provide the needed support if you're unsure of how to manage next steps in recovery.

- All Customers entering into Self-Exclusion will forfeit any points, rewards, tier credits, comps, free play or other benefits previously earned from Deadwood Mountain Grand rewards programs.

- Self-Exclusion status will remain active until customer requests to withdraw from the Self-Exclusion Program and Deadwood Mountain Grand casino management approves that request.

- Customer acknowledges that, once enrolled, the Self-Exclusion status will remain active for a minimum of 90 days or otherwise noted on the Deadwood Mountain Grand Self-Exclusion form.

I, _____ acknowledge that I am a problem gambler and voluntarily seek to exclude myself from Deadwood Mountain Grand property. I hereby request and authorize Deadwood Mountain Grand to place my name on the list of self-excluded persons for a period of (select one):

Deadwood Mountain Grand is committed to our moral and ethical obligation to provide help to our fellow members and our clients regarding problem gambling. Deadwood Mountain Grand has obtained material regarding compulsive gambling and have placed informational pamphlets at all of our casinos and enclosed some in this packet. The various sources can be helpful in your quest for information about this illness and how to cope with the issues and problems that arise due to compulsive gambling.

Two organizations available are Gamblers Anonymous and GAM-Anon programs. Gamblers Anonymous is a worldwide association of people that share a common tie. Both Gamblers Anonymous and Gam-Anon programs are self-help groups that promote change and personal growth, usually in regards to addiction and other personal issues.

If an applicant wishes to exclude him/her self from Deadwood Mountain Grand Gaming facilities, the option is his/hers.

Deadwood Mountain Grand would like to thank you and commend you for realizing that there is a problem and taking the corrective steps to resolve it.

Sincerely,

Deadwood Mountain Grand

SELF-EXCLUSION PROTOCOLS

Once a Self-Exclusion application is received and acknowledged by Deadwood Mountain Grand casino management, the form will be given to the Compliance Office and the following policies will take effect immediately:

1. Customer will be flagged in the Casino Player Management System, (Oasis). A memo flag will be placed on the customer's Player's Club database and noted the customer is on the Self-Exclusion list. This will prohibit the customer from playing slots, sports betting or table games, as well as withdrawing money from the cashier's cage.
2. The Oasis program will generate a monthly report of all players who are entered into the Self-Exclusion program. This monthly report will be submitted to the South Dakota Commission on Gaming when it is produced.
3. All customers who have submitted their names for self-exclusion will immediately forfeit all points, rewards, tier credits, comps, free play and any other benefits he or she have earned.
4. Customer will be omitted from all mailing lists.
5. All casino departments will be provided a 'Self-Exclusion' binder that will include documentation of the customer with photo as to easily identify customer on the list.
